Volume 1, Issue 7 January-February 2009

Highlights of our Deputation so far:

- Since our last newsletter, we have travelled to the Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Massachusetts/Rhode Island and Connecticut districts.
- We enjoyed a wonderful Christmas season in Montreal with our extended family. The temperature dropped to 30 degrees below zero!
- We are scheduled next in West Virginia, Arkansas, Kansas & Iowa.

Some interesting facts about Montreal:

No building in Montreal is permitted to be higher than the cross planted on Mont Royal by Jacques Cartier in the 1500's.

Montreal receives so much snow in the winter that it is removed from the streets by truck convoys, purified and dumped in the river.

If a building in Vieux Montréal (Old Montreal) is damaged or burns down, it must be rebuilt in the same architectural style as before, to preserve the look of the old city.

DEPUTATION NEWS!

It is amazing the number of people the Lord has allowed us to minister to both in the pulpit and out of it. I met Peter and Chyanne Horne at a hotel in Oregon and found out Chyanne was fighting cancer. I was able to pray for her that morning, and they came that evening with me to the church in Salem, Oregon pastored by Bro. Jerry Miranda. The saints treated them with such warmth and kindness. It was so gratifying to see them in the altar at the end of service, tears flowing down their cheeks in repentance. I taught them a Bible study the next morning, and have been in touch by phone since then. The Lord continues to do a work in their lives.

In Bristol, Connecticut, I felt compelled to stop at a small deli, and struck up a conversation with Rochelle, the owner. Amazingly, she was a Haitian lady who had been in the US a few years having moved from Montreal! I had the opportunity to pray for her and her business and found out she still has family living here in the city of our calling.

Montreal French Conference

Liane was able to attend the French Conference in Montreal in November. What an awesome time of refreshing, fellowship and ministry! It was also a great opportunity to practice her French language skills. Guest speakers included Bro. Paul Majdling from Bordeaux, France; Bro. Michael Long and Bro. Craig Sully, both from New Brunswick, Canada (pictured here with local pastors and families).

85-year old man baptized

In Thompson, Connecticut we met for Updraft, a meeting that flowed with Apostolic power and anointing. On Friday night after a deep move of God, an 85-year old man was baptized in Jesus' name. The youth of the church met him while doing street evangelism; he had a Bible study and came to church.

Ron received

The next day the presence of God was evident throughout the time of prayer, sharing and ministry to one another. Ron received the Holy Ghost and his face radiated with a new found joy. Another life broken by sin is redeemed by a loving Savior! That, my friends, is what missions is all about – loving those who can't help themselves. Thank you for your support of our
